the information desired.

3. Responses to requests made under the above section shall be provided as soon as practicable, but the member must give the Cooperative at least five business days advance notice before the date on which the member wishes to inspect such records.

C. Information available to current members of the Cooperative with a good faith statement of purpose

1. The following information shall be subject to disclosure upon providing a good faith statement of a proper purpose for its use in a request using the attached Exhibit 1, which includes the date, member's name, account number, and a description of the information desired:
  - a. A list of members of the Cooperative and their addresses are available to (i) candidates qualified under Policy 105 and running for director at the next election pursuant to C.R.S. Section 40-9.5-110(1)(b); and (ii) a member for inspection, pursuant to C.R.S. Section 7-127-201, from two business days after the notice of the members' meeting until the date of the members' meeting.
  - b. The candidate or member requesting the list of members will sign a nondisclosure agreement and affidavit, consistent with Exhibit 2 attached hereto, attesting that:
    - (1) The requesting party is a candidate qualified under Policy 105 and running for director at the next election, or a current member of the Cooperative that is entitled to vote at the members' meeting for which the list was prepared.
    - (2) The purpose of receiving the list shall be for the distribution of candidate or position statements to other members in anticipation of a members' meeting and will not be used for any other purposes of advertising, marketing, or solicitation.
    - (3) The information will be destroyed or returned to the Cooperative promptly after the members' meeting.

- (4) The member will not allow the information to be used in a computerized auto dialer system.
  - 2. Responses to requests made under the above section shall be provided as soon as practicable, but the member must give the Cooperative at least five business days advance notice before the date on which the member wishes to inspect such records in accordance with C.R.S. Section 40-9.5-110(1)(b).
- D. Information not available to members, due to privacy or other protection
  - 1. The following information shall be considered confidential or protected from disclosure to the members of the Cooperative, unless the Board of Directors approves such request for disclosure after consideration at a regular meeting:
    - a. All personnel files, including but not limited to specific information regarding any employee's compensation, benefits or work performance;
    - b. All documents or information related to executive sessions of the Board of Directors or any Board committee;
    - c. All member account information that discloses confidential information about the member or the member's account;
    - d. All documentation related to litigation matters, preliminary budgets, contract negotiations, real estate matters, or other documents otherwise protected by applicable law;
    - e. All documentation or information that is subject to a Non-Disclosure Agreement or similar agreement;
    - f. All documentation or information that constitutes a trade secret, process, program, or trademark; including budgetary information for specific projects that might disadvantage the Cooperative's bidding process.

- g. All documentation or information whose disclosure is prohibited by law;
  - h. All other documentation or information that is designated as confidential by the Board of Directors or the CEO.
2. To request review by the Board of Directors, the requesting member must be a member of the Cooperative for at least three months, complete the written request form attached as Exhibit 1, and include a good faith statement of the purpose for requesting the information and how the information will be used. The Board of Directors may require an affidavit and nondisclosure agreement, consistent with the attached Exhibit 2, be signed prior to releasing any of the requested information.
  3. The member must give the Cooperative at least five business days advance notice before the date on which the member wishes to inspect such records as required by C.R.S. Section 40-9.5-110(1)(b).
  4. Nothing herein contained is intended to supersede the disclosure of information required by law or compelled by court order. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, any member shall be provided specific account and business information related to the member's account and shall be free to discuss with appropriate members of the Cooperative staff any questions or concerns about the member's account or the services provided to such member by the Cooperative.

III. REIMBURSEMENT

The Cooperative reserves the right to assess charges for providing information such as reimbursement for staff time, copying expense, and postage, if any, unless otherwise required by law. The Cooperative also reserves the right to request a deposit for such charges, unless prohibited by law.

IV. RESPONSIBILITY

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is responsible for the administration of this policy and for maintaining the written request form (Exhibit 1) and the nondisclosure agreement and affidavit (Exhibit 2).
